

A sample of our Policies for all Australians

- We are pro-life because all life is precious
- We are pro-families as they are the basic unit of society
- We are pro-religious freedom while protecting the vulnerable
- We are pro-freedom for all with protections to guard your freedom from those who would try to take it from you
- We are pro-Australian ownership of all Australian land. We will seek to return Australian ownership on any land currently foreign owned.
- We are pro-affordable housing to the most vulnerable
- We are pro-Australian owned industries
- We are pro-full employment for all Australians
- We oppose the automatic increases in government charges
- We oppose the close connection between government and financial institutions and we aim to ensure a significant separation between them
- We oppose the increasing foreign debt and will seek to arrest it completely

Why be involved in a Political Party?

In a democratic country the people's voice and opinions should matter and one of the ways to be informed and to have your voice heard is as a part of a grassroots community.

It is imperative that the ideas that we have been tested among people whom we know and as we widen that band of people, to establish a more wholesome way to develop policies for the benefit of all Australians.

C4C is committed to listening and then developing policy ideas to bring about wholesome circumstances for all Australians.

We invite you to join with us as we carefully try to develop policies that will benefit all Australian communities.

Where and how do we meet?

We meet via Zoom and we also arrange face to face meetings at various times in locations convenient to as many members as possible.

The logo consists of the letters 'C4C' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered within a solid blue square. Below the square, the email address 'Admin@C4C.care' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font.

C4C Leadership group planning meeting February 2025

WHO ARE WE?

The C4C, Christians for Community, are very concerned about the direction our political leaders are taking Australia. As a God-fearing, concerned group of dedicated Christians, we come together to discuss the political and social issues affecting Australia so that we can develop ideas for effective policies that are honest, just and uncompromising. We consider the concerns of non-Christians as we develop our policies for all, with deep interest and respect for all. We need you on our team so that we can improve our processes and jointly celebrate God in our lives and in our serious policy discussions for a better Australian community inclusive of all.
